

China M. Jenkins Biography

China M. Jenkins, Ph.D., is the founding Executive Director of the TEAM (Teaching, Enrichment, Advising, Mentoring) Center in the College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences at Texas Southern University. Her Ph.D. is in Educational Human Resource Development with a focus on Adult Education from Texas A&M University. During her 16-year career in higher education, China taught at two- and four-year institutions, directed faculty development centers, and created instructional and leadership development programming for faculty, administrators, and students. Her scholarly works, teaching, and service focus on educational and faculty development, culturally responsive pedagogy, and inclusive approaches to teaching within adult and higher education learning environments. China advocates for the pedagogical transformation of educators through critical self-reflection. She actively speaks at and provides professional development for colleges and universities across the United States.